

Ride That Midnight Train

David Potts 2018

Key of D

^D I took a ^C ride on a ^G midnight ^D train
^D The conductor ^C warned us of ^G heavy ^A rain
^D It did not ^C matter I had to ^G ride
^D River's a ^A rising and my ^D baby's on the other side

^D We plowed through the ^C night and into the ^G day
^D Had to make ^A Jackson before the ^D bridge washed away
^D Trees on the ^C track and ^G lightning in the ^D air
^D The passengers ^A eyes all filled with ^D despair

Chorus
^G So ride, ride that ^D midnight train
^G You might make it thru but you will never be the same ^A
^G So you got to ride, ride that ^D midnight train
^C If you die tonight you got no one but ^G God to ^D blame

^D The bridge started ^C crumbling as we made the ^G grade
^D Too late to turn back, it's the ^A choice that we made
^D Thought I saw the ^C angels ^G carrying that ^D train
^D As we made the other side in the ^A driving ^D rain

Chorus
^G So ride, ride that ^D midnight train
^G You might make it thru but you will never be the same ^A
^G So you got to ride, ride that ^D midnight train
^C If you die tonight you got no one but ^G God to ^D blame

^D The train pulled in the ^C station, now my ^G baby's by my ^D side
^D You can't ^A hesitate when it's your ^D time to ride

D C G D
Like Job our days are numbered and when it's time to go
D A D
Nothing in this world will keep your feet on that floor

Chorus

G D
So ride, ride that midnight train
G A
You might make it thru but you will never be the same
G D
So you got to ride, ride that midnight train
C G D
If you die tonight you got no one but God to blame
X2

C G D
If you die tonight you got no one but God to blame
C G D
All aboard, all aboard that midnight train
C G D
Well you know you got ride that midnight train
