

You're Gonna Wind Up Gone

David Potts 2014

Key of Em

Em
He said he was a Christian, but we know that wasn't true
D
He also said he loved his wife, but was a lie too
C
The whiskey and the women was just to help him thru
Am D Em
No crime had been committed except a broken vow to you.

Em
Now your wife is my mother, but you ain't no kin of mine
D
If daddy was still alive, he'd shoot you in the spine
C
He loved her every day he lived, til he died in her sweet arms
Am D Em
But since I am the constable my feelings aren't my own
C D STOP Em...
Awe but if you don't stop hurting her, you're gonna wind up gone.

Chorus

C Em
Well you're gonna wind up gone, and no one will mind
C Em
There's places in these hills that no dog can find
C Am
So you better treat her right and if I see just one more tear
D C Em C Em C Em C Em
They won't find your body for at least fifty years

Em
So if you don't stop drinking and running all around
Or you better catch the next train leaving this old town
C
And if I catch her crying your days on earth are done
Am D STOP Em
You're gonna wind up gone before the rising sun

Chorus
